

Fundraising for KIK – suggestions

---

Fundraising can be lots of fun and extremely rewarding, so why not get involved today and make a difference? Don't be afraid to ask people to help. Tell them about KIK and the good work that we do. Above all, be enthusiastic!

Here are some thoughts to get you going.

Events – you could hold one every couple of months

- Hold an auction night - auction things that people donate or services that they may offer.
- Have a theme night, eg an African night, with typical food, entertainment, decorations etc. Charge for tickets.
- Put on a talent show, or a night with music and food. Get people to donate food, and musicians to play for free.
- Invite your friends for lunch or dinner, and make a charge for the event.
- Cake sale - everyone brings a cake and buys a cake.
- Bring and buy sale.
- A music evening with a collection.
- Barn dance/ceilidh or other theme - 60s, 70s, 80s, etc.
- Car boot sale.
- Table top sale.
- Quiz evening.
- Fashion show.
- BBQ.
- Jumble sale.
- Design & Make - then sell cards, bookmarks, recipe books.
- 5-a side football match.
- Fancy dress party.

Sponsored Events

- Run/Walk
- Cycle ride
- Climbing / Swimming
- Silence
- Whatever people are prepared to do.

Get others Involved

- Groups you are involved in.
- Local Schools.
- Local workplaces.
- Newspapers, radio stations.
- Other charities may want to help.
- Local shops can help with publicity and may sponsor you.
- Friends & family – ask them to donate £1 per week to KIK.
- Organise a team of fundraisers to help you
